WHEAT AND HAYCROP AT THE BEST

Office of Pittsburg Dispatch, Thursday, September 26, 1889.

Joseph Hickman, a thrifty farmer from the vicinity of Bridgeville, who is serving his country as juryman in the Criminal Court this week, gives his views as to the accicultural situation in his section as follows: "In more than 20 years' experience I do not know that the wheat, oats and hay crops were ever better in my neighborhood. I met a farmer the other day from the neighborhood of Venice who told me his wheat crop this season would reach 46 bushels to the acre. This, of course, is exceptional, but the average through the southern part of Alle-gheny county and Washington county will not he far from 20 bushels to the acre, and this will oats crop, the yield has been 40 to 50 bushels to the acre in my section, which is a very high average. We consider 50 to 60 bushels of oats to the acre an extra good crop. Very Little Fruit. Aside from apples we have very little fruit this summer. The apple crop is a fair average, but not up to last year, which was an extra season. In my neighborhood the farmers of late years have been turning their attention to a great extent to the milk business. The whole farming business has been revolutionized in South Farette township in my time. Sheep and cattle raising have been found to be unprofitacattle raising have been found to be unprofitable in recent years for small farmers. The farmer whe has 15 or 20 milk cows has found a ready sale for his product in Pittsburg, and at the same time can keep his land in good condition from the manure. There has been of late a disposition to return to sheep raising in my neighborshood; but the methods of farmers of 20 years ago would furnish very scant pickings now. One of my neighbors ships to Pittsburg markets in the neighborhood of 30 gallons of milk daily. The summer price is 10c per gallon and the winter price 16c. In this way be can turn his farm products daily into cash, and is able to keep his farm in first-class condition."

Liberty Live Stock. The live stock situation is not materially tion of hors, which advanced 10 to 15c yesterday. The hog supply has not been equal to the demand all this week. The same is true of sheep and lambs. Anything choice in either line finds ready customers at outside rates. Nice tidy butcher cattle are also in good demand. As we are passing through an era of low prices, low grade staff is at a discount. East Liberty stockmen report that export cattle coming to this market of late are not as a cattle coming to this market of late are not as a rute up to standard. Export cattle have sold better in Chicago than here of late, for the reason that the offerings at the former place are better selected stock. Those coming to our markets are brought down in grade by the presence of a few inferior cattle in a load of exports. There has been this week some improvement in this respect over last week. But there is large room for further improvement on the part of shippers. Following is the week's report of

THE LADIES TAKE A HAND.

They Propose to Make it Very Warm for the Chicago Gamblers. CHICAGO, September 26 .- A number of prominent ladies of this city have formed an association and have hired a lawyer to prosecute the gamblers of the city under the State law. The work was begun to-day with the arrest of John Morris, the proprietor of a gambling house on Clark street. The attorney for the ladies says that there is every reason to believe that the gamblers will very soon become frightened. The State law against gambling is very severe. It provides that a person convicted the first time of the offense of running a gambling house or reating property to be occupied by a gambling house shall be fined $100, and that on second conviction the fine shall not he less than $500 and the additional penalty of six months in the county jail, and on the third conviction that the penalty shall be $500 fine and one year in the penitentiary. The ladies, whose names, except that of Mrs. Van Ardet, are not made public, in-end to push the cases to the full extent of the law. They are taking steps to convict, not only the gamblers themselves, but also the men who own the buildings where gambling houses are conducted.

MARKETS BY WIRE.

Strong Bull Feeling in the Wheat Pit-Heavy Trading-Prices Show Gains

CHICAGO-As invariably happens on a genuine bull market for wheat, news from everywhere was of a stimulating character. Heavy trading was witnessed in all of the leading futures to-day, and outside domestic markets averaged almost as strong as our own, it proved to be no difficult matter for local bulls to keep speculative values on the up-grade. In spite of the heavy realizing sales the market was bullish and big and broad. As large outside buying orders were received in the minds of conservative operators, theres lingered a suspicion that there might, after all be some manipulation in the deal. A local bouse with large Eastern and foreign clientage sold nearly 2,000,000 bushels of long wheat early, and later in the day bought almost as much on orders mainly from outside. Early cables to the board were firm for both spot and futures, and late, or closing ones, called California spot wheat and all futures ½4 higher.

Summed up, to-day's transactions were the largest so far on the crop. Based on yesterday's closings, the net gain for the day was 2c in September, 1½c in October, December and May, and 1½c in year.

tember, 1%c in October, December and May, and 1%c in year.

Corn was fairly active and weaker, transactions being at a lower range of prices. The market opened at yesterday's closing prices, was easy, offerings being large, a prominent local trader selling large quantities of October and May, which filled up the local crowd. When the estimates for to-morrow came in placing the receipts at 595 cars the local crowd sold freely, and the market ruled weak and declined. Final quotations were 1/c lower than yesterday.

A quiet and easy feeling prevailed in oats. The near futures were sold by longs who have become tired out and wanted to unload, and

GREAT INTEREST

Good Words for Natural Gas Spoken by a Leading Business Man.

ITS ADVANTAGES TO PITTSBURG.

Full List of New National Banks Authorized to Begin Business.

NEW ORGANIZATION TO HANDLE REALTY

The folly of the man who cut his nose off to spite his face is frequently paralleled in business affairs. Natural gas has done more to increase and strengthen Pittsburg industries, and spread her fame abroad, than anything else, and to attempt to weaken its importance for stock-jobbing purposes, or from any other motive, is a wrong to one of the vital interests of the city. Said a prominent business man yesterday:

"I am surprised at the depression of natural gas stocks. I think it springs from jealousy as much as anything else. There seems to be a clique here—a coterie of selfish people—who want to enjoy all the benefit of natural gas by keeping everybody else out. For this purpose they consoct and circulate stories of shortage in supply, wells giving out, loss of business to the companies, and anything and everything else to create an impression at home and abroad that the supply is giving out. Of course these stories have more or less weight with investors who too often accept street talk for gospel truth, and the consequence is that the stock suffers. What was Pittsburg before she commenced using natural gas? What is she now? A blind man can see the change. It has attracted millions of outside capital, and caused the greatest industrial expansion ever known here. To depreciate an interest that has done so much for the city shows a lamentable lack of public or two, but this is always the case at the beginning of winter. It results, not from a decrease in supply at the wells, but from changes neces-sary to meet the requirements of cold weather. The scarcity is not so great as it was last year or the year before. Indeed, in view of the fact that the Philadelphia Company has taken on 2,000 additional houses this season, and that the iron mills are consuming twice the usual quantity, it is remarkable that the supply has held out so well. The autumn changes to meet the increased service will soon be finished, when every consumer of natural gas will be abundantly supplied. The wells are all right, and the service will be all right. I have no patience with people who cry down the very thing that has given Pittsburg the greatest boom she has ever experienced." . . .

The demand continues active, and the mills are running full. Bar iron has advanced in sympathy with pig, and is held at the $1 80 rate. Metal is firm at $16. This is an advance of about $2 per ton within the last eight weeks. The building boon all over the country has stimulated the demand for nails, and they are firmly held on a $2 25 basis for wire and $2 for cut. The proposed syndicate has fallen through. The Pittsburg Land and Building Company is a new organization for handling real estate.

Its chief object is to acquire title to land, erect buildings thereon, and sell them on reasonable terms to people whose means do not permit them to become all at once proprietors. The officers are: President, Mr. C. P. Ford, President of Select Council; Vice President, Mr. W. H. House, of the City Attorney's office; Secretary and Treasurer, Prof. C. B. Wood, of the Pittsburg High School; Attorney, S. A. Johnston, Esq.; Managers, Messrs. Straub & Morris. These names of prominent citizens will commend the enterprise to the confidence of the community. The present capital stock of the company is $50,000, but it is proposed to in-crease it to $500,000. When sufficient stock has been subscribed, the present Board of Directors will resign and a new one be selected

From a circular just issued by the company, the following is quoted:

The advantages arising from the aggregation of capital, in the hands of an incorporated company, used for this purpose are obvious. It costs much more, proportionately, to pur-chase a single lot and erect a single building, than it does to buy a block of lots and erect a number of buildings under one contract. The saving in this respect is, in itself, a good profit on the capital invested. Blocks of comfortable small dwellings can be erected and sold to those who wish to buy homes at less price than they can buy and build for themselves.

A BOOM IN STOCKS.

Best Day's Trading for Many Moone Strong and Weak Spots.

Yesterday was a red-letter day at the Stock Exchange. The proceedings were in the nature of a revival meeting. Captain Barbour was happy. The brokers were pretty well loaded up with orders, and they didn't allow files to settle on them. Bidding was lively, and sales Cooney.

W. A. Herron & Sons report the sale of lot No. 3 in the Moore plan, Ecquet street, Oakland, size 25x146 feet, for $1,000 cash.

Samuel W. Biack & Co., 99 Fourth evenue, sold for M. L. Wortman a double frame dwelling house, fronting 375 feet on Garrison street and running back 130 feet to Norman street, Second ward, Allegheny, for $6,000. were so disproportionate to the usual run as to render the word "immense" not out of place as a descriptive epithet. The transactions footed up 1,680 shares, of which La Noria contributed opened at 32, and, on heavy realizing, was forced down to 31½. It was fractionally stronger in the afternoon on light offerings. All of the natural gas stocks were stronger, and even La Noria showed signs of returning vitality. Yankee Girl was a little off, the best bid for Yankee Girl was a little oil, the best bid for her being 4, against 6 a few days ago. People's Pipeage was bid up to 17%, with 17% asked. There was a good inquiry for the railroaders and they were steady to firm. Electric and Switch and Signal were weak and neglected. Taking the list all through, the gains were RATHER SUSPICIOUS.

Wall Street Sharps Think Some London Buying Orders Originate on This Side-Strong and Weak Featares of the Market.

NEW YORK, September 25.—The stock market to-day showed little or no change from the duliness of the past two weeks as far as the general list is concerned, and although the tone of the dealings was undoubtedly strong the fluctuations were as small as ever, and the realizations of the last hour wiped out many of the gains made in the early portion of the day. The London buying of Union Pacific in particular, St. Paul, Louisville, Western Union and specialties was the feature of the day's operations, but the fact that the 2 o'clock prices in London were not above our clos prices in London were not above our close made some suspicion that the buying orders emanated from this side. Union Pacific attracted the lion's share of the attention, and while the extreme rise in the stock was only 1½ per cent, it was accompanied by an assortment of rumors, among which an alliance with the Manitoba, the purchase of the Ft. Worth and Denver, and a new pool in the stock were most conspicuous, while the handsome increase in the earnings undoubtedly had a positive influence.

and Denver, and a new pool in the stock were most conspicuous, while the handsome increase in the earnings undoubtedly had a positive influence.

Louisville and Nashville was largely traded in, but the extreme fluctuation in the stock was only % por cent, and its final change is insignificant. Western Union became a prime favorite in the afternoon, and the business done in it far exceeded anything done in it for a long time. Lake Shore also at the same time awoke from its letharry, and with Denver, Texas and Ft. Worth, was a feature in the forenoon, and reached the highest price yet attained, after which is became dull and held steady at close to its best figure. Among the inactive shares there were marked movements in Short Line, Manhattan and some others, but Tennessee Coal was a weak spot after the first advance of 1% to 55. The coal stocks were again prominent for strengch, and Jersey Central and Delaware and Hudson continued their upward march. The trusts were dull and fairly well held until late in the day, when Sugar made another dip, the pressure being specially severe, and a drop of 2 per cent resulted, though the others were quiet and steady throughout.

The irregularity of the opening figures was succeeded by strength all along the line, and, the foreign purchases becoming very marked, the shorts were induced to cover some of their lines, which kept the market slowly advancing for the greater portion of the day, Realizations on the day's rise began toward delivery hour, but while there was some recession from the best figures, the market closed firm and generally at fractional advances over first prices. The final declines are few in number and insignificant in extent, while Short Line is up 2; Jersey Central, 1%; Union Pacific and Western Union, each 1½; Northwestern, Delaware and Hudson, and Denver, Texas and Fort Worth, each 1½; Big Four, Chicago Gas and Manhattan, each 1 per cent. The only important decline was Sugar, 2%.

In the railroad bond market to-day the Fort Worth and Denver firsts figure adelphia Gas at 35½, 29 at 35% and 125 La Noria at 11½.

At the afternoon call 250 shares of La Noria went at 1½, 10 Pittsburg Traction at 48 and 100 Pleasant Valley at 16½. Before call 700 shares of La Noria sold at 1½.

Andrew Caster sold 100 shares of La Noria at 13½. Charles L McCutcheon sold 50 shares Electric at 51½. Sproul & Lawence sold 50 shares Philadelphia Gas at 35½. Henry M. Long sold 100 shares Philadelphia Gas at 35½. Henry M. Long sold 100 shares Philadelphia Gas at 35½. and 10 shares Pleasant Valley at 20.

While almost everybody is bullish, one of the principal obstacles in the way of a revival of business is lack of a leader to set the pace and excite enthusiasm. But in the present condition of the market, and in the face of a famine of certificates, operators are alraid to go long or short, and the result is that both sides, looking to safety, are compelled to go slow and take things as they come. There is a very small opening for a "plunger." Wabash preferred.... Western Union... Wheeling & L. E.

The decline in Sugar Trust shares is attrib uted to the fact that the corporation is loaded up with high-priced raw sugar.

LA NORIA went off like hot cakes. It was evident somebody wanted her. Well, she may be a better girl than some people think. The supply of potatoes is now fully equal to demand. Farmers who have been otherwise engaged for a few weeks past are now gathering potatoes, tempted by the advance in prices. Carload lots are begging for customers to-day at $1.50 per barrel and under. There is no immediate prospect of a potato famine. Apples grow firmer every day. Sweet potatoes are easy. Eggs are firm. The upward drift of cheese has resulted in an advance, as an inspec-tion of our quotations will disclose. The ad-vance in creamery butter has been fully sus-tained by events. LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

—At Cairo, Ill., B. F. Curtis, a merchant, and John Wallace, a mail carrier, quarreled over the removal of Commissioner Tanner, and Wallace was struck over the head with a molasses jug, receiving an injury from which he died an hour later.

Owing to the wonderful growth during the last decade of electrical industry the Superintendent of Census has decided to have a special investigation of the subject for the report of the census of 1890. It will be entrusted to Mr. A. R. Foote, of Cincinnati, who has been recommended for the position by nearly all the leading firms engaged in the industry, and other prominent people generally.

The body of Richard Maybury, shockingly disfigured, was found Wednesday night under the ruins caused by the recent Quebec landslide. The remains will be interred with military honors. The number of bodies recovered to date is 44, and one, that of young Pemberton, is still buried under the debris. The li wounded victims are in a fair way for recovery. The improved coal and other material land acreage must be assessed for taxation, and it is made obligatory upon the Legislature to fix a royalty upon the coal tomage. A provision was adopted making eight hours a legal day's work. The convention will

—Before Recorder Smyth, at New York, ye terday, Lawyer Brooke moved that his clien Henry S. Ives, be transferred from the Tomb prison to Ludlow Street Jail, on the groun that the jury having disagreed in a crimina trial Mr. Ives should go back to Ludlow Stree Jail, where he was locked up pending the trie of a civil suit against him. The Recorder sai that Ives was properly within the jurisdictio of the Court of General Sessions. The District Attorney, after some further discussion, consented that Ives be sent back to Ludlow Street Jail. This places Mr. Ives in the hands of the Sheriff.
